

Prevent & Channel in Cwm Taf

Everyone has a role in helping to prevent people from being radicalised or drawn into terrorism.

You can do this by checking any concerns you have

NOTICE—CHECK—SHARE

If you:

- ♦ NOTICE a significant change in behaviour and use of language of someone expressing extreme political views
- ♦ CHECK—don't ignore your concerns, check with your manager or colleagues in confidence, and if needed.
- SHARE—if you still have concerns, in the first instance contact Claire Blackmore, PREVENT Co-Ordinator for Merthyr Tydfil CBC. Call 01685 725494 or e-mail Claire.blackmore@merthyr.gov.uk. For any concerns out of office hours please contact prevent@south-wales.pnn.police.uk or call 999.

If appropriate, your concern will be shared with the PREVENT team at South Wales Police .

If we share our concerns, together we can protect people who are at risk of Radicalisation or Exploitation.

What is PREVENT?

Prevent is the Government's strategy to stop people becoming radicalised and supporting terrorism, in all its forms.

What is Channel?

Channel is multi-agency approach, designed to support individuals vulnerable to being drawn into violent extremism or supporting terrorism.
